Answer the following questions (Great expectations) (Ch. 12)

1. Which character do you like most in "Great Expectations"? Why?

- I liked Joe so much, as he offered to take Pip into his home rather than see him be an orphan. Despite being cut off by Pip for quite some time, Joe looked after Pip when everyone else has left him. He also forgave Magwitch when he confessed to stealing the Gargery's meat pie.

2. If you were Joe, would you pay off Pip's debts? Why?

- Yes, because Pip is my best friend and I must be by his side when he is in trouble.

3. In your opinion. What was the greatest expectation for Pip? Why do you think so?

- The greatest expectation for Pip was leaving the life of poverty and living as a gentleman.

4. 'It's my wedding day, Pip!' Bidy said, happily. 'Joe and I have just got married!' Would Joe have married Bidy if he had known that Pip had wanted to marry her? Why?

- Yes, because he needed Bidy to look after him after his wife had passed away.

- No, he would have allowed to marry Bidy as he loved Pip so much.

5. What is the worst character in "Great Expectations"? Why do you think so?

- Compeyson was the worst character as he deceived Miss Havisham out of most of her money and deserted her on her wedding day. He also betrayed his friend Magwitch when he told the court that Magwitch was responsible for all the crimes leaving him to face life sentence.

6. In your opinion, what is the moral lesson of "Great Expectations"?

- Becoming a gentleman does not make you a better person. Once Pip becomes part of high society he thinks that the way he now dresses and his style of living now make him a better person but actually they don't.

أسئلة عامة علي القصة

1. What is the best character in Great Expectations, in your opinion? Why?
 - Joe is the best character in Great Expectations. He is so kind as offers to take Pip into his home rather than see him be an orphan. He's also forgiving: Despite being cut off by Pip for quite some time, Joe looks after Pip when everyone else has left him. He also forgives Magwitch when he confesses to stealing the Gargery's meat pie.
2. Mention two lessons you learn from Great Expectations.
 - One's happiness and well-being are not deeply connected to one's social position.
 - Taking revenge on others may harm them as well as oneself.
3. Do you think Pip would have loved Estella if he had realised Miss Havisham's "intention" Why?
 - Yes, due to her matchless beauty.
4. Do you believe that all people who had a difficult childhood could become criminals? Why?
 - No, they must struggle to overcome their difficult circumstances to prove themselves as good and productive members in their societies.
5. Should Pip have understood what Miss Havisham wanted to do concerning his relationship with Estella? Why?
 - No, because he was too young to understand such a trick.
6. What do you think Miss Havisham could have done to overcome her bad experience with her fiancée?
 - She should have looked for a good husband to have a new start and live normally?
7. If you were Pip, would you forgive Miss Havisham Why?
 - Yes, she was so kind to me as she had paid for my apprenticeship.
8. Do you think that Pip's life would have changed if he hadn't met the convict? Why?
 - Yes, because he decided to be educated and be a gentleman when he met Estella and she treated him badly.
 - No, but for the money the convict sent Pip, Pip wouldn't have become a gentleman or achieved his expectations in life.
9. Which character do you like most in Great Expectations? Give reasons.
 - I like Joe most. because he is gentle, kind and forgiving. Though Pip is his wife's (Mrs Joe) younger brother, he treats Pip like a son. He guides him through his childhood years, shielding him from Mrs Joe's attacks and providing employment to him when he becomes a young man. He is also Pip's truest friend, sticking by him in times of trouble and never being critical of the way Pip behaves.
10. Do you think there is a similarity between the characters of Estella and Miss Havisham? Illustrate your answer.
 - Yes, both were cruel and had a heart of stone and they both wanted to break men's hearts.
11. Do you believe that Miss Havisham is a character that deserves sympathy? Why?
 - Yes, she went through a bad experience when her fiancé and her brother plotted against her to take most of her money.

- 12. In your opinion, what the greatest expectation that Pip had? Why?
- His love for Estella - she is of a higher social class and he feels unworthy of her and therefore wishes to improve himself
 - His desire to become a gentleman - this allows him to move upwards in society and become a gentleman
- 13. Do you agree that Pip deserved the money he received from Provis? Why?
- Yes, because he lent the convict a hand by bringing him food and a file to help him break his leg-irons.
- 14. If you were Estella, would you agree to be a tool of revenge in Miss Havisham's hands? Why?
- Yes, because Miss Havisham had adopted me. She brought me up in a way that made me have a heart of stone and I have no emotions.
- 15. Do you think it's normal for Mrs Joe to be so cruel to Pip? Why?
- No, she should have been kinder to her brother since he was an orphan.
- 16. Do you like Mr Joe's character? Why?
- Yes, because of his forgiving nature: Despite being cut off by Pip for quite some time, Joe looks after Pip when everyone else has left him. He also forgives Magwitch when he confesses to stealing the Gargery's meat pie.
- 17. Do you think Pip was right to help the strange man in the marches? Why?
- Yes, as the strange man in the marches was hungry and needed a blacksmith's file to break his leg irons. Pip also was afraid of him as he had threaten to kill Pip if Pip didn't help him.
 - No, Pip should have told his sister and Joe what had happened in the marches when he returned home.
- 18. Do you feel sorry for Miss Havisham despite her attitude towards Pip? Why?
- Yes, as the bad experience she went through was too much to bear.
- 19. What is the moral lesson of "Great Expectations" in your opinion?
- One needn't be rich or a gentleman to be happy. You can be happy when you live and interact with kind and affectionate people.
 - Taking revenge can prevent you from leading a normal life.
- 20. What might have happened if Estella hadn't been a tool in Miss Havisham's hands?
- Estella would have been kinder towards others and she wouldn't have broken Pip's heart.
- 21. What might have happened if Miss Havisham's fiancé had been faithful to her?
- They would have got married, had children and lived happily.
- 22. Do agree that Mr Joe played a role in changing Pip's character? Why?
- Yes, he never blamed him for mistakes Pip had made. He was always helpful. He taught him how to live happily even if he wouldn't be a gentleman.
- 23. Can we consider Mr Joe a role model? Why?
- Yes, although he was a blacksmith, he lived happily. He had a forgiving nature: Despite being cut off by Pip for quite some time, he looked after Pip when everyone else left him. He also forgave Magwitch when he confessed to stealing the Gargery's meat pie.
- 24. What might have happened if Pip had told the police about the convict he saw in the graveyard?
- Joe and Pip's sister would have known that Pip had stolen food and the file.

- The convict wouldn't have thought of rewarding Pip later on.
- 25. If you had the circumstances of Miss Havisham, would you be cruel like her? Why?
 - Yes, because the trauma she went through was too much to bear.
- 26. In your opinion, was Estella a victim? Why?
 - Yes, She was subject to abuse by Miss Havisham. She was brought up to despise men but to use her beauty to attract them and then break their hearts.
- 27. "I wish she wouldn't hit you, Joe," Joe said. "I would rather she hit me than you!" What did these words show about Mr and Mrs Joe's characters?
 - They reflect how cruel Mrs Joe was towards her brother while Joe was kind to him. He treated Pip like a son. He guided him through his childhood years,
- 28. Why do you think Miss Havisham was always asking Pip about his opinion of Estella?
 - She wanted Pip to be attracted to Estella's beauty so that Estella could break his heart. Miss Havisham did so because she wanted to take revenge on men.
- 29. Are there any similarities between Bidy and Joe's characters? Why?
 - Yes, both of them loved Pip and cared for him. Both had forgiving nature as they didn't feel angry that Pip no longer visited them when he became a gentleman. They were never critical of the way Pip behaved.
- 30. Do you think that the convict had a great effect on Pip's life? Why?
 - Yes, as he changed Pip's life completely. He was the source of Pip's good fortune which helped him to be a gentleman.
- 31. What might have happened if Pip hadn't gone to the graveyard?
 - He wouldn't have met the convict or stolen the food and the file from Joe's house.
- 32. " Pip is welcome to go and find his fortune. Money makes no difference to my feelings for him." What do these words reflect about Joe's character?
 - They reflect Joe's self-denial إنكار الذات that Joe was Pip's truest friend who loved him so deeply that he only thought of how Pip could achieve his expectations in life.
- 33. Do you agree that Miss Havisham's fiancé and brother affected the lives of Pip and Estella? Why?
 - Yes, When they plotted against Miss Havisham and took her most of her money, she thought of revenge: She adopted Estella and trained her to be cold and cruel so that she would break men's hearts. She invited the young Pip to her house so that Estella could practice on him.
- 34. Do you think Jaggers is a good person? Why?
 - Yes, He never told anyone more than he needs to and gave Pip no clues as to where the money has come from. He was such a professional lawyer that he kept the secrets of his clients.
- 35. Do you agree that Estella was a victim of Miss Havisham's circumstances ظروف ? Why?
 - Estella has been psychologically abused by Miss Havisham's upbringing when she used her to break men's hearts, which made her cruel, cold, and emotionless.
- 36. Do you think that it's natural for criminals to be grateful? Why?
 - Yes, some of them had to become criminals because of the circumstances they were brought up in. They would prove that they are good and productive citizens if they were given the chance.

- 37. Do you think Estella had the qualities that could motivate everyone to love her? Why?
 - No, despite her beauty and attractiveness, she was cold and cruel. She had a heart of stone.
 - Yes, she had matchless beauty.
- 38. Do you think Miss Havisham misled Pip? Why?
 - Yes, as she didn't tell him that she wasn't his benefactor.
- 39. Do you think Pip was happy to know who his real benefactor was? Why?
 - No, he wished that Miss Havisham was his real benefactor so that he could marry Estella. Now that he knew his benefactor was a criminal, he wouldn't take any money from him.
- 40. Was it surprising that Miss Havisham felt sorry for Pip? Why?
 - Yes, because she had planned to make Estella break his heart and she didn't think of telling him that she wasn't his benefactor. She never seemed to sympathize with Pip before.
- 41. Do you agree that Miss Havisham did harm to Estella? Why?
 - Yes, Estella was one victim of Miss Havisham's: she didn't bring her up to lead a normal life like other girls, so Estella became cold and cruel and with no emotions.
- 42. Do you think Joe shouldn't have helped Pip pay all his debts? Why?
 - No, despite Pip's bad treatment towards Joe, Joe still loved him and treated him like a son. Joe felt that it was his duty to give him a hand in times of need.
- 43. Do you sympathise with Molly's character? Why?
 - Yes, she had miserable childhood and she was deprived of her daughter.
- 44. Is there any similarity between Orlick and Provis? Why?
 - No, they were like chalk and cheese: while Provis did his best to make a gentleman of Pip, Orlick tried hard to cause Pip as much trouble as he could.
- 45. In your opinion, what was the greatest expectation that was achieved for Pip?
 - Changing his social status was the greatest expectation that was achieved for Pip as he finally became a manager in Mr Clarriker's business.
- 46. If you were Pip, what lesson would you learn in the end?
 - One's happiness and well-being are not deeply connected to one's social position.
- 47. Should Havisham have forgotten what her fiancé had done and started a new life? Why?
 - Yes, despite the bad experience she went through, she should have overcome it to lead a normal life: marry and have children.
- 48. Which character do you sympathise with most in Great Expectations? Why?
 - I sympathise with Miss Havisham because both her fiancé and brother had plotted to deceive her and take her money. This was too much to bear.
- 49. In your opinion, which life was better for Pip: his life at the blacksmith's or the wealthy one in London with the convict's money? Why?
 - Pip's life at the blacksmith's was better for him because he would be much happier living with the people who truly loved him.
- 50. Do you think Pip would have been happier if Miss Havisham had been his benefactor? Why?
 - No, whether she was his real benefactor or not, Pip wouldn't marry Estella because she didn't love him and even if he had married her, she wouldn't have made him happy.
